

Lesson Plan
Semester- 2nd
Session- 2025-2026
Paper- NEP – MDC-
Class- B.A – ISt

Unit	Topics	Contact Hours
I January	Environment and Development; Industrialization: impact of industry and technology on environment; Production and consumption-oriented approaches to environmental issues Urbanization: urban sprawl, traffic congestion and social-economic problems.	02 hours/week
II February	Population Explosion and Ecological degradation; deforestation; environmental pollution; epidemics, development-induced displacement, resettlement, and rehabilitation: problems, concerns, and compensative mechanisms.
III February	Significant global environmental issues: acid rain, climate change, biodiversity loss; ozone layer depletion, resource depletion and conservation; interface between environment and society. Sustainable development
IV March	Nature, scope and analysis of local and global impacts of energy use on the environment; Issues related to water use, distribution and scarcity; International concerns and efforts for environmental protection: Role of United Nations, Stockholm Summit, Rio Summit
V* March	Practical's 1. To prepare a case study of local environmental issues in your surroundings. 2. To analyze the status of forest cover in the state of Haryana. 3. To study and analyze the trends of global climate change 4. To analyze the impacts of acid rain on historic monuments: a case study of Taj Mahal. 5. To prepare a report on international efforts for environmental protection. 6. Any other relevant experiment.	02 hours/week
Suggested Evaluation Methods

 Dr. Satya Parkash